19,802,054 makes for more fun stories Today, 7:07PM

19,794,587 I prefer regression of adult women to teenage/tween/adolescent. I'm less enthusiastic about straight regression to baby, though can live with it if its the conclusion to a gradual regression. Today, 2:03PM

19,785,459 Regression to adolescent the door for many ideas. at this age the character become helpless under the supremacy of other characters such as sisters or girls at school. This hit many targets with one arrow. It reveal role reversal more than any other age because the regressed character is for example a girl under puberty (not a teenager) makes her losses the good shape and curvy body be humiliated more from other characters and at the same time not a baby so she could be aware of what happening and react with words and be spanked or sent to school or dominated by other characters while she is still struggling for her dignity. Also if the character was superior like a teacher or mother or bigger sister and she turns into a girl it will be so much fun to see student girls at school dominating her or she enroll again in kindergarten. 19,776,978 process until around 6-7 is interesting for me. I don't care if you go further, but the process ain't important anymore then. But if it's important for the plot, so be it ^^ Today, 1:14AM

19,772,729 any younger and they cant interact with their world Yesterday, 7:00PM

19,758,888 I like seeing ar to teenage or adolescent, but its more to do with story line. i like it if ar more stick in humiliating situations. maybe small petite woman being shown up by more bigger bustier young girls (maybe beach or showers)or teens strugling to keep up with friend and little sisters. Yesterday, 4:14AM

I'm good with them all; it's both harder to depict and less interesting to pull a regression on a 'grandma' than a 'hot middle age woman' afterall (Grandma has been out of touch for much longer and isn't as obscest with sexual behavior). The only fear that I see from the community is the taboo of associating any sort of sexual appeal Yesterday, 2:46AM

19,756,261	toward children and as long as that context is avoided, regression is in and of itself, a rather appealing and amusing way of telling a story!
19,753,675	Not sure what "teenage" and "adolescent" mean in this context. I most enjoy AR to pre-teen/early teen ages. 10-14, or so.	Yesterday, 12:34AM
19,733,984	Adds more to the plot as they adjust to the change	Saturday, Feb 4th 8:22PM
19,729,838	Baby, Toddler, Pre-pubescent, since it goes great with humiliation	Saturday, Feb 4th 7:19PM
19,727,424	I'd prefer to see a gradeschooler who still wears diapers	Saturday, Feb 4th 5:16PM
19,724,999	I'm alright with all of the above, though I lean more heavily towards both teenage and adolescent. I wouldn't mind seeing a comic with all three. I mentioned Bojay's magic dice comic earlier and the different ages that the characters were regressed to made it interesting. For example, Rita regressed to twelve years old allowed her regress a great deal while still maintaining the ability to interact and punish the four year old Carl and interact and be punished by the adult Chloe.	Saturday, Feb 4th 2:58PM
19,724,171	Prefer regression/progression towards a sexually active age, so teenage is the lowest I want to see really (although temporary non-sexual dips into younger ages are ok and usually amusing, I prefer characters who are able to have some kinky fun with the transformations and anything below ~15 is a waste.)	Saturday, Feb 4th 2:13PM
19,721,408	-> It has a certain humiliation factor (esp. in high school) that I like to see when the Victim surpasses their bullies at their own game.	Saturday, Feb 4th 11:56AM
19,716,769	like I said unborn but all the above are good too	Saturday, Feb 4th 9:23AM
19,716,684	Any sort of regression is fine with me, if handled in the right way.	Saturday, Feb 4th 9:21AM
19,702,457	Specifically toddler between 18 months and 3 years old. And it's because I like regression in that age range and it is not too young but not too old to be out of diapers and babyhood in general.	Saturday, Feb 4th 3:24AM
19,702,239	Toddler is fun. You still have enough control to kind of be independant, but too small and weak to really fight back.	Saturday, Feb 4th 3:18AM
19,701,238	Child aging 6-10	Saturday, Feb 4th 2:53AM
19,698,819	Teen and Todler & the ages inbetween	Saturday, Feb 4th 1:47AM
19,692,128	I like when the regressed person can voice their pleasure or, preferably, displeasure with their new situation. Regression to a baby usually takes out that option and I'm not that interested in diaper play. Teenage is a nice stop along the AR process but I usually prefer they continue younger still.	Friday, Feb 3rd 10:42PM

19,691,082	I prefer they regress to kids or toddlers, regressing to teenagers isn't bad either.	Friday, Feb 3rd 10:23PM
19,690,605	Prefer AP over regression	Friday, Feb 3rd 10:11PM
19,689,007	Childhood is fine. Teenage and adolescent is great, but it's when the character gets to childhood that they know things have gone too far, and it's more difficult to keep up the illusion of normality. Which is more fun!	Friday, Feb 3rd 9:32PM
19,683,889	A baby is more AB kind of stuff and teenage allows the regressed still too many options. For me adolescence was a humiliating and awkward time and that is what I enjoy.	Friday, Feb 3rd 7:41PM
19,682,993	I like powerful mature woman to helpless baby	Friday, Feb 3rd 7:26PM
19,682,880	Babyhood doesn't really interest me. Teenage or young adolescent has more potential for the person regressed to have to deal with being younger than he should be-- and adults being more suspicious that he is trying to "pull something" and lying. Babies are considered innocent, young adolescents, particularly boys, are considered anything but.	Friday, Feb 3rd 7:24PM
19,681,292	i dont like all the way to infancy but other than that i love it	Friday, Feb 3rd 6:36PM
19,677,728	I mostly like a very SLOW regression where you can see them becoming less mature, with baggy clothes. I don't like them become very little and i don't like it happening very quickly.	Friday, Feb 3rd 4:21PM
19,677,238	I'd prefer for them to be comprehensive of what happened, and possibility of having sex in the comic. So Id prefer if they regressed to about the start of puberty.	Friday, Feb 3rd 4:04PM
19,673,109	It was tough to choose a favorite age that I'd like to see a character regressed to. But I guess my favorite is a when a character is regressed until he's just on the other side of puberty. That was a great age.	Friday, Feb 3rd 2:48PM
19,672,395	Toddler or Infant is great but should be a male with female caretaker. (Girlfriend or Wife turning man into infant)	Friday, Feb 3rd 2:30PM
19,666,286	pre-teen	Friday, Feb 3rd 11:28AM
19,665,966	i'd rather see progression from young teens to adults more	Friday, Feb 3rd 11:22AM
19,664,437	It would be nice to see an Old Age regressions to more of a Young Adult, but Teenage would be the lowest I would like to see it go.	Friday, Feb 3rd 10:34AM
19,663,727	Young adult!	Friday, Feb 3rd 10:14AM
	I like every step of the regression. Maybe have some characters stop earlier, but at least one go all the way. Maybe	Friday, Feb 3rd

19,660,869	have a story with several characters where all their ages get mixed up?	8:42AM
19,660,569	Younger I dont like.	Friday, Feb 3rd 8:34AM
19,657,740	I do enjoy the regression scenes that take them slowly into the infant stage. Believe me, it does tend to take away the fun when they go straight into the infant stage because the point of regression is the slow factor. Not to seem flip-floppy but there is a time or a place for instant. Which I don't have to tell you, normally bases it off of the situation that the individual is in.	Friday, Feb 3rd 6:56AM
19,653,947	Any age is fine although younger than teenager is preferable	Friday, Feb 3rd 3:20AM
19,653,935	all or the above.	Friday, Feb 3rd 3:18AM
19,653,642	Teenage years can be dramatic difference in moods, actions, morals, maturity, etc compared to the same person in adulthood. So there's contrast to be drawn upon. 40 year old might think a 19 year old guy is all wrong for her 17 year old daughter. A regressed 40 year old might be just as smitten or moreso than her daughter with the guy. And the regression can certainly go farther but I think it's best if some time is spent in this period (if it fits the plot of course).	Friday, Feb 3rd 2:57AM
19,653,493	AR to girl age is cool! Baby only if it fits to the story OR is about to force a character to the end to start a new life. But I'm not into Baby AR.	Friday, Feb 3rd 2:49AM
19,652,881	For me, baby is maybe too much, but I can handle it. My perfect point is the adolescence	Friday, Feb 3rd 2:14AM
19,652,560	Just enough for them to understand the humiliation behind the change.	Friday, Feb 3rd 1:56AM
19,652,269	I'd like to see the adults still kind of close to the progressed person.	Friday, Feb 3rd 1:38AM
19,651,755	all of the above, does not have to be in the same comic, i just dont favor any particular kind so long as it's done tastefully	Friday, Feb 3rd 1:00AM
19,651,348	Adolescent seems to be the sweet spot, as it doesn't enter in to slightly creepy territory. The main draw of AR for me is the physical change, as the woman now has to struggle with clothes that no longer fit	Friday, Feb 3rd 12:28AM
19,651,239	Mostly to baby, though after reading Nexus Chronicles, regression to 4-6 years old has developed some appeal as well.  My personal interest in the genre stems out of a control fetish; I was/am a "sleepy" fetishist first (superheroine and other "action women" knockouts / carries etc for the most part) and came to AR (and a tiny bit of TG) later, after an adjustment period where it came to not weirding me out. When I first came upon transformation fetishes it made me uncomfortable, because I had some response to them and that wasn't sure that I "should". But eventually I grew accustomed to that part of me and said "it's fine".  All human fetishes I think feed on novelty -- one needs new and different stimuli to stay interested.	Friday, Feb 3rd 12:20AM

19,651,075	 If you mean physical, i'd like to see toddler ages, possibly baby. Mental, baby ages.	Friday, Feb 3rd 12:08AM
19,651,016	 I'm not a fan at all of age regression past teenage years. I've bought your comics that featured younger AR, but only those that also have an AP component to them. I would love to see you guys do some sort of "elderly to young adult/teen AR" though	Friday, Feb 3rd 12:04AM
19,650,776	 I'm fine with unbirth too like you used in one of your last comics but I think this is an acceptable amount.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:42PM
19,650,498	 cause turning into a baby is to close to being a pedo...	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:21PM
19,650,329	 Like the idea of mature adult being turned into pouty brat or serious businesswoman becoming ditzy cheerleader, etc.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:09PM
19,650,207	 I guess that its the ultimate punishment for an adult to have all sexuality removed and left powerless and dependent.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:01PM
19,649,948	 Just a personal prefece, going down to that helpless is my favoirt	Thursday, Feb 2nd 10:47PM
19,649,795	 Torn between teenage and adolescent. I really like both. I strongly dislike toddler/baby material.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 10:38PM
19,649,280	 love to see transformation and shrinking into clothes, physical aspects, large clothes slipping off especially shoes and socks, stripping of power control and authority	Thursday, Feb 2nd 10:14PM
19,649,138	 Preschooler	Thursday, Feb 2nd 10:08PM
19,649,021	 I have no interest in baby/diapering so stopping just on the other side of puberty is fine. And even then that's probably pushing it to much unless you're looking for a darker or more comical way of doing it.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 9:59PM
19,648,949	 Okay, I like the whole range here, including some not listed. I'm a big fan, for instance, of old women getting regressed to young adulthood. It's also very cute when particularly mature-acting adults get turned into kids, whether they try to maintain dignity or run around wrecklessly. In the end, though, my favorite is when arrogant, bossy women get turned back into infants.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 9:54PM
19,648,868	 I like AR to infancy because it includes all of the above ages.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 9:50PM
19,648,764	 I love seeing a person regressed and helpless. Especially when they are forced to be diapered, dressed, bathed and breast fed.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 9:44PM
19,647,645	 They have to depend on others and even though they hate it they can do nothing about it	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:54PM
	 I don't like to see AR go too young especially as inherent fetish material.	Thursday, Feb 2nd -----

19,647,442			8:45PM
19,647,189		If someone regresses from adulthood to infancy, I get to the them through several different stanges of transformation and the transformation is longer.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:34PM
19,647,070		10 year old child because they are more cute	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:29PM
19,646,690		Ultimately, though stopping at each point along the way is most awesome.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:11PM
19,646,564		Its just my personal opinion that adolescent and younger is too young.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:06PM
19,646,128		not a lot out there. i like it to always have a visual or text like reminder nearby on the page to keep the idea that the girl has been transformed.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 7:44PM
19,645,371		I am an AB/DL and love the idea of becoming a baby again, having to wear and use diapers, and being changed by former peers.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 7:19PM
19,644,297		It is the youngest option, but grade school is also good.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 6:37PM
19,644,264		adversity is tough	Thursday, Feb 2nd 6:35PM
19,644,261		I be an infantilist, as such I prefer the baby side of regression.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 6:35PM
19,644,257		While I'm personally more into the 'baby' endings, I think ending any comic BEFORE this ending is a waste (and I've been disappointed on several comics from the site after taking the leap and buying them) because transforming INTO a baby can encompass the other regressions. You can pretty much please everyone with a baby transformation.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 6:34PM
19,644,250		love diapering and teasing	Thursday, Feb 2nd 6:22PM
19,643,724		all the way to various stages of human age except prenatal	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:50PM
19,643,450		To me, the most dramatic and visible change/development occurs in a person between 10 and 20 years old. A baby to an adolescent just gets taller. A teenager to an adult looks almost the same, just fills out a little more. But in an adolescent to an adult, there a whole lot of stuff going on. So, in a mainly visual comic, the more pronounce the changes the better the comic.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:30PM
19,643,446		Teenage or adolescent, girls who are still sexual, but reduced from past splendors. And more consistency in regression of curves and such. In some stories, like the recent one with Marilyn and the youth ray, the women at 16 have figures more like a pre-teens, while being curvaceous adults. While shorter and less busty than as adults, it's hard to believe a girl would develop that extensively so late in her teens. Just a thought.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:31PM
19,643,122		At least I would like to see toddler age.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:30PM

19,643,422

19,643,307	 Teenage is a cute age, and you are not quite a child but not quite an adult so there are not all the freedoms you would have..adolescent is nice as well.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:23PM
19,643,079	 I would love to see teen, adolescent regression that is forced into diapers.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 5:17PM
19,641,691	 able to socialize and interact, but in changed capacity	Thursday, Feb 2nd 3:59PM
19,641,471	 It's the time when the body sees the most changes. Teen or adolescent is just right for me. Like they're on the edge of being an adult, but have to go through their teen or preteen years again.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 3:48PM
19,638,085	 Personally, for age regression, I'm open for characters being regressed into kids, but with certain characters, especially females, I like seeing them regressed into babies or toddlers.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 1:00PM
19,637,623	 Ultimate Humiliation	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:42PM
19,637,520	 I like gradual regression, maybe pausing at teenage, adolescent, but ultimately at the baby stage.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:37PM
19,637,453	 Actually it doesn't matter how far they regress	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:33PM
19,637,433	 As long as they lose puberty it's good. :)	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:31PM
19,637,368	 I find the concept of someone being regressed to an infant or toddler to be capable of better ideas where the person could still be aware and has to be able to adapt to the considerable differences from when they were an adult. It can also open the door for cute scenes and a cute story.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:30PM
19,637,265	 There should be more AR where the victim becomes a preschooler as he/she can be put in more embarrassing situations.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:24PM
19,637,052	 AR to a baby means more phases of transformation.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 12:17PM
19,636,403	 With process all the way through. Detail is everything.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:54AM
19,635,873	 A adult regressing to a teen or adolescent is fine by me. Baby is ok but the other two are my favorites.	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:37AM
19,635,657	 its super cuite	Thursday, Feb 2nd 11:29AM
19,631,795	 Child (sorry, it's my obsession)	Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:55AM

 Because Age regression to infancy is so hot. being unable to control yourself and being so young and helpless is a big thing Thursday, Feb 2nd 8:50AM
19,631,642

 I like AR'd to baby regressions. Thursday, Feb 2nd 7:57AM
